ELISA BELLO

Participated as a Delegate at the 4th National Selection Conference of the European Youth Parliament Luxembourg which took place from the 6th to 9th June 2017 in Luxembourg City, thereby performing an act of European citizenship.

At the conference, the participant had the opportunity to:

- get to know and exchange views with youngsters from different European countries
- improve his/her English language skills in controversial and challenging debates;
- develop his/her ability to work in a diverse team, as well as his/her negotiation skills;
- experience a democratic decision-making process through group work and in a parliamentary assembly form
- express his/her own opinion and show personal initiative;
- expand his knowledge of European political institutions and topics.

The European Youth Parliament Luxembourg is a member of the unique international network of the European Youth Parliament (EYP), a non-partisan, non-biased, non-formal educational programme for the entire European youth in all its diversity. Established in 1987, the network has grown steadily over the years, currently comprising youth organisations in 40 European countries. In 2015, it reached out to over 34,000 young people at more than 592 events.
